

Chetna Club

A social activity was conducted by Chetna Club under the supervision of club coordinator Ms. Neelima Budhani. The students of Computer Science and Applications collected surplus stationary items from students and these items were distributed to needy children at Primary School, Lamachaur. The School administration appreciated this noble step taken by students of AGI.

